*Dues are not tax deductible as a charitable contribution, but may be deductible as an “ordinary and necessary” business expense, subject to an exclusion for lobbying activity. A portion, $102.54 from the $575, ($4.65 from the $95) is not at all deductible because NAHB, WBA and LABA engage in state and federal lobbying. Consult your tax advisor for more information.

Our Mission Statement

Building industry professionals working together since 1971 to educate our members and advocate for affordable housing and responsible government.

Professional Standards for LABA Members

Members of the Association shall subscribe to the following standards:

- Members shall conduct business affairs with professionalism and skill.
 - Honesty is our guiding policy.
- All housing shall be built to meet or exceed the minimum standards of the industry as defined by state and local codes.
 - Members shall comply with both the spirit and letter of business contracts, meet all financial obligations in good faith, and manage employees with fairness and honor.
- Members shall not obtain any business through fraudulent means, knowing acts of omission or by use of implications unwarranted by fact or reasonable probability.
- Members shall not perform or cause to be performed any act which could reflect discredit or disrepute on any part of the building industry and/or the Association.
- Members obtaining construction payouts shall promptly pay creditors and not use the funds for other purposes.
- Members shall support and abide by the decisions of the Board of Directors in promoting and enforcing these standards.

Members assume the responsibilities of these standards freely and solemnly and are mindful that these responsibilities are a part of their obligation as members of the La Crosse Area Builders Association.

Prohibited Factors: Anticompetitive Practices: The La Crosse Area Builders Association supports the system of free enterprise and open competition. Monopolies or any kind of price wage fixing are detrimental to the system of free enterprise. Unfair business practices are practices that are likely to reduce competition and lead to higher prices, reduce quality or levels of service, or less innovation. Anticompetitive practices include activities like price fixing, group boycotts, and exclusive dealing contracts or the application of trade association rules to bar competitors. The Board of Directors shall not issue any disciplinary action on any basis that would be an unfair or anticompetitive business practice.

Acknowledgments

I understand that this membership shall be effective as of the date of the signing of this application, subject to a review of the company, applicant, owners and majority stockholders, and subsequent approval of the Board of Directors. (The Board of Directors will review this application within 60 days. If this application is denied, a check for the dues amount will be returned.)

It is further understood and agreed that LABA has the right to investigate applicant, owners, and majority stockholders including conducting personal interviews and background and reference checks.

The named applicant hereby authorizes LABA to conduct such investigation, make certain inquiries and obtain credit reports as may be necessary for its determination of the applicant's financial and technical ability to meet its obligations to subcontractors and suppliers and comply with the Code of Ethics & Performance.

Applicant hereby directs all credit reporting agencies and/or financial institutions to make available to LABA and representatives any information in possession of such agencies.

The applying company agrees to abide by the Bylaws of LABA, WBA and NAHB, as well as the Professional Standards of LABA.

By signing this application, the applying company consents to receive communications sent by or on behalf of LABA and the organizations to which LABA is affiliated, to the company addressed and numbers listed in this application.
